

Stephen Dunn/Getty Images

David Webb, an undersized defensive end known for his big heart and the racoon-like eye black he wore at USC games, passed away today from cancer, according to a family friend. Webb was popular with teammates and coaches and memorable to any USC fans in the early 1990's. He was named USC co-defensive player of the year in 1991. He is survived by his wife, Leslie, and two sons.